Dear sir, madam,

Last year I submitted a paper that I wrote together with my colleagues. We presented our paper virtually at the ICERI18 conference. We were wondering whether we could link our paper to our University's repository and to our LinkedIn page and/or Academia.edu. I asked the same question for papers that we presented at Edulearn last year and we were granted approval, so I hope you can confirm as our university supports open research.

Hope for a positive reply. Thanks in advance.

Met vriendelijke groet,

Johannetta Gordijn, MA
